Dear Dan:

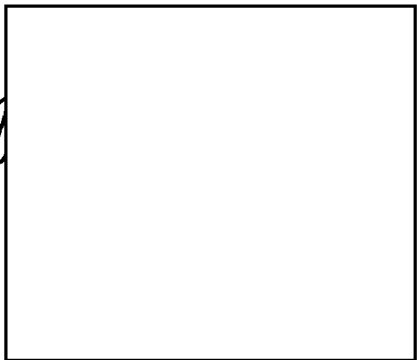

Attached is a copy of a memo we received recently which accompanied some equipments sent to us for repair by Customer D. We have repaired the material under Contract A-102 and are returning it to the addressee. This memorandum is not the usual type of paperwork which accompanies such orders as it contains no voucher number or other such identification. I would appreciate your letting us know whether requests of this type are bona fide.

Sincerely,

25X1A

Jack
